Professor N. B. McLean,

Secretary of Inauguration Committee,

University of Manitoba.

My dear Professor McLean:

My address at the University Dinner in Winnipeg was at least for the first half extempore, and a good deal of the second half was not written, so that I think it would be extremely difficult for me to reproduce it. Unless, therefore, it is going to inconvenience you greatly I should much prefer to have it omitted from your proceedings.

Yours sincerely,

President.
